Chocolatour is a new line of single origin, vintage chocolate bars from Chocolive, a premium chocolate manufacturer, offering a world tour of chocolate.

Eating Chocolatour is an experience like tasting a bottle of fine wine: it's possible to choose a specific terroir and vintage, from the countries communicated by the packages of the line.

Chocolatour is made exclusively from origins and vintages that have high quality cocoa beans; it is made in limited productions and some origins may be available only once in a few years.
