

NYC GARBAGE

Properties list:

limited edition packaging
event packaging
box
arts and crafts
packaging as a new medium extra-use of packaging
transgressive
other non-food products
plastics
transparent
unusual visual association

An artistic provocation: a man's trash kept in a clear plastic cube by an artist and sold all over the world to people who want a unique and fitting piece of New York City. Justin Gignac of NYC Garbage arranges soda cans, receipts, club flyers, parking tickets and other junk and signs and dates each cube of trash.

Reference: <http://www.nycgarbage.com/press.html>

Credits:

Country: United States of America

Year: 2001

Designer: Justin Gignac

Other images:

