

RESOLUTION

Properties list:

reusability
refill system
end-user packaging
single product
concept
water
additional structural elements
other shapes
metals
minimal
high-tech
metallic
debossed, embossed
identity by shape

This is an environmentally oriented and refillable water bottle with flavour refills. By screwing on the small flavour caps to the bottom of the bottle a sharp knife breaks the seal, which lets the flavour out and mixes it with the water. The idea is to make people carry one bottle around and use it over time instead of buying new plastic ones, for a one time use.

Reference: <http://www.hampusjageland.com>

Credits:

Country: Sweden/Australia

Year: 2007

Designer: Hampus Jageland

Award: Blue Marlin Spark Award, 2007

Other images:

