Non toccare! Pericolo d'ustione (Don't touch! Danger of burning)

The decontextualised image of a heat-producing object is placed on the hottest part of the pizza box, encouraging a sensory connection between the characteristics of the food

Concept developed at the Design Department of Politecnico di Milano within the research programme "Sicurezza in famiglia" ("Safety in the family" - scientific coordination of prof. Valeria Bucchetti), financed by the Italian Consortium for the Recovery and Recycling of Cellulose-based Packaging (Comieco).
